HELLOKOALAS on TOUR

Hello Koalas announces its own band of Wildlife Warriors, spreading the message far and wide that we must care for our koalas and all native fauna and flora. Our Hello Koalas had such a good time in Canberra recently in March, on exhibition at the Australian National Botanic Gardens for the Enlighten Festival. They loved all the attention. Over 50,000 vehicles through the gates brought record attendances to the Gardens and Hello Koalas achieved social media reach of nearly 13 million people! Hello Koalas will be travelling for an exhibition at the Royal Botanic Garden Sydney in October / November 2019.

We have gathered together our environmental champions including:
